

QUALITY POLICY

Alliance Surveying is recognised as providing customers with high quality surveying services.

Our reputation is based on our uncompromising ability to respond to the needs of customers whilst providing unsurpassed levels of customer service.

This reputation has been achieved through creating a highly trained and motivated work force combined with utilising the best technology available.

Each and every member of Alliance Surveying is responsible for the quality of service we provide to our customers.

In order to maintain our current position and to create a platform for future improvement, development and growth we are committed to complying with customer's requirements, meeting our obligations and to developing and continuously improving our Management Systems based on the criteria of ISO 9001:2015.

I am personally committed to the future improvement and growth of Alliance Surveying which will be achieved through the ongoing training of all employees and the continuous improvement of our Management Systems. Alliance Surveying is committed to comply with legal & other requirements.

I urge all employees to share this commitment so that together we can continue to surpass the expectations and needs of our customers.
